This Metro-Columbia five-reel production is one of the strongest motion picture offerings of the season. The story was written by the Rev. William E. Danforth and directed by John H. Collins. Supporting Miss Dana are Augustus Phillips, Robert Walker, Edward Earle, Grace E. Stevens, Fred Jones and Harry Linson.

The life of a Snaker community is shown in The Gates of Eden, and contrasted with its perfect simplicity are backbone of the plot, and provide the unusual complications that go to make up this supremely fascinating story.

The Shakers do not believe in marriage or in the perpetuation of the race. Their idea is that men and women should live together as brothers and sisters, never as husband and wife. The hardship that such a belief wreaks on loving young hearts can well be imagined.

John H. Collins, who directed this production declares it is one of the John H. Coillins, who directed this production declares it is one of the strongest and most beautiful pastoral dramms he has ever produced for the screen. "No better star than Miss Dana could have been chosen," he added. "She fits perfectly into the two roles allotted to her."

The tweifth chapter of The Crimson Stain Mystery completes the bill for today and Thursday.

DAVIS THEATRE

The new year started off with a rush at the Davis this week and crowded houses have voiced their approval of the excellent show that opened the beginning of another year. opened the beginning of another year. The feature attraction is The Hippodrome Four, a male quartette who present a comedy act called Dingelspiel's Night School. They are all good singers and the comedy is funny throughout the entire act. A special stage setting depicting the interior of a school room sets the act off. Another headliner is the Latoy Brothers who present a pantomime acrobatic novelty that is different from anything ever seen here. Force and Williams complete the vaudeville in their original comedy skit, called Skihigh with Si. This is one of the best singing and talking acts of the search of singing and talking acts of the season. They also have a special stage setting a roof garden in New York. The Triangle feature is William S. Hart, the popular western actor, in The Devil's Double, a five-part Inceproduction and one of the best plays this noted star has ever appeared in. William S. Hart is too well known to need any introduction to the Davis patrons and no one can afford to missis his latest picture he is sturred in. To complete the show there is a funny two reel Keystene comedy called The Lion and the Girl. This is a regular Keysone laush-getter and will send you home with a smile.

Tomorrow there will be a complete change of program and another big neath.

AT THE AUDITORIUM

Charlie Chaplin in Night Owls, Extra Festure for Today and Tomorrow-Everything New Today.

In addition to the big Strand Musical Comedy Co., which is appearing here all this week. Charlie Chaplin, the $570,000 comedian and gloom chasen, will be seen in The Night Owls which is a novel story with side-racking laughable situations aplenty and produced in two reels. Another zpecial two-reel feature on this same bill will be Sarah Bernhardt in her latest photoplay. At Home, which has just builtshed a long run at a prominent loston theatre. The photoplay bill at the Auditorium for today and to-tite and health on both."

Monsieur Le Karte, at the head of a corps of efficient helpers, will give as-siduous attention to all desires. Les jeunes filles will offer tooth-seme dainties to tempt the appetite. Time will not be permitted to hang heavily, for apart from appeals to the epicure, there will be songs, and character sketches, and musical numbers, following each other in quick succession throughout the entire evening, so that interest and pleasure may not wane.

"Now good digestion walt on appearing there are the production to all desires."

NAVAL MANOUVERS AT G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT Which is to Be Held in Boston Beginning August 19.

Washington, Jan. 2.—Manouvers of the Atlantic fleet which had been fixed to begin Aug. 20 and to continue to Sept. 1, were ordered postponed by Secretary Daniels today in order that a part of the fleet may participate in the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, to be held in Boston beginning Aug. 19.

For Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

Here in America there is much suffering from catarrh and head noises. American people would do well to consider the method employed by the English to combat this insidious disease. Everyone knows how damp the English climate is and how dampness affects those suffering from catarrh. In English chimate is and how dampness affects those suffering from catarrh. In English dead noises as a constitutional disease and use an internal remedy for it that is really very efficacious.

Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored by this English treatment to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven and eight inches away from either ear.

tent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven and eight inches away from either ear.

Therefore, if you know someone who is troubled with catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be easily prepared at home for about 75c and is made as follows:

From your druggist obtain 1 oz. of Parmint (Double Strength), about 75c worth. Take this home, and add to it i-4 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take a tablespoonful four times 2 day. Parmint is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are usually remarkably quick and effective.

Every person who has catarra in any form should give this recipe a trial. Lee & Osgood can supply you.

OLD-FASHIONED FOLKS.

Old-fashioned folks! God bless 'em all!

The fathers an' the mothers,
The aunts an' uncles, fat an' tall,
The sisters an' the brothers,
The good eld-fashioned neighbors, too
The pessing time improves 'em.
They still drop in to chat with you
Whene'er the spirit moves 'em.
The simple, unaffected folks
With gentle ways an' sunny,
The brave and true
That live life through
And stay unspoiled by money.

Old-fashioned folks, of solid worth,
On them a benediction!
The joy an' cemfort of the earth,
Its strength, without restriction.
The charm of every neighborhood,
The toilers, uncomplaining,
The men an' women, pure an' good,
Of fine an' honest graining.
The plain an' open-hearted folks
That make no fad a passion,
The kind an' fair
That do an' dare
An' are not slaves to fashion.

An' are not slaves to fashion.

Old-fashioned folks, that live an' love An' give their service gladly.

An' deem their neighbors worthy of Their help when things go badly. The simple sharers of our joys.

Sweet ministers in sorrow.

They help the world to keep its poiss An' strength for each tomorrow.

The simple, unaffected folks.

That live for all about 'em,

God bless 'em all,

This earthly ball

Would dreary be without 'em.

POPPING CORN. And there they sat a-popping corn, John Stiles and Susan Cutter; John Stiles as stout as any ox, And Susan as fat as butter.

And there they sat and shelled the

And raked and stirred the fire, And talked of different kind of ears, And hitched their chairs up nigher

Then Susan she the popper shook. Then John he shook the popper Till both their faces grew as red As saucepans made of copper. And then they shelled and popped and ate.

And kinks of fun a-poking.

And he haw-hawed at her remark

And she laughed at his joking.

And still they popped and still they ate (John's mouth was like a hopper). (John's mouth was like a hopper).
And stirred the fire, and sprinkled salt,
And shook and shook the popper. The clock struck nine, the clock struck And still the corn kept popping;
It struck eleven, and then struck tweive,
And still no signs of stopping.

And John he ate, and Sge she thought—
The corn did pop and patter,
Till John cried out, "The corn's afire!
Why, Susan, what's the matter?" Said she, "John Stiles, it's one o'clock;
You'll die of indigestion;
"m sick of all this popping corn;
Why don't you pop the question?"
